From This Moment...

From the moment you walk through the doors of Chancellor High School, until the moment your tassel is flipped at graduation, you encounter new experiences and create memories that will last a lifetime. The memory of the sweet taste of victory and the bitter taste of defeat...The sound of excited voices, both new and familiar...That good grade you receive on that project that you worked on until two in the morning to finish...The aroma of the bonfire on a crisp October evening, preceding the Homecoming game...The hours you spend working on Homecoming walls and floats... The feel of the steering wheel between your hands and the gas pedal beneath your foot for the first time... That feeling you get when you dance with that special someone...Saturday nights spent with friends... The first paycheck from your very first job... That feeling you get when you mail off that college application to your top school...The weight that is lifted from your shoulders when you make a big decision...All of these and more are the moments we will remember when we reflect on our years at Chancellor High school is not just a new beginning for the Freshmen, but it is the beginning of a new world for the Seniors as well. From the moment graduation ends, your future begins... From that moment you will succeed... and at times, fall short... You will laugh... You will cry... You will experience joy... You will know sorrow... You will be courageous... You will be afraid... You will know hardship... And times of ease... You will know love... And you will see hate... It is our hope that success, joy, courage, and love will outweigh failure, sorrow, fear, and hate for everyone. For these feelings last but a moment in time; what will you remember...

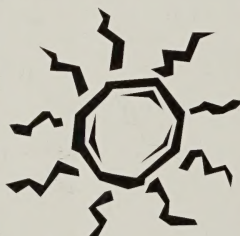

From This Moment?

*"You're off to great places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting.
So...get on your way!" -Dr. Seuss*

Remember Every Moment

Although it is summer and they are out of school, the students of Chancellor High are still very busy with many things, such as jobs, summer practices, and spending time with friends. Chargers don't let the heat keep them from making the most of their summer.

Candice Breeden and Maureen Pfahler get together over the summer. Andy Keddie rides a four wheeler. Ashleigh Frank attends summer camp with the Color Guard. Paul Sprick plays fetch with his dog. Elizabeth Lynn and Anna Reece run the swim team table at Freshman Orientation. Kyle Stapp does some shopping. Laura Folse, Frankie DePaola, and Jennie Bishop return from their summer trip to Greece with the Latin Club. Sheena and Cherie Velez take some time out to relax over summer. Kristen Iracane and Ali Bragg get into a water fight at the softball car wash. Ashley Russi lifeguards at the Loriella Park community pool.

Pathway To The Future

For many students at Chancellor, summer isn't all about having a good time and spend time with friends. Many of them have jobs to earn money for their cars, college, or just for spending. Through working, they also gain valuable experience that will help them in the years to come. Chargers excel in the workplace just as they do in school.

From the Starting Line

Chancellor High School athletes don't spend their whole summer away from school. They work hard to perfect their skills for the upcoming season. All the teams work to bring the Chancellor Chargers victory! Good luck, teams!

From This Point On

On the first day of school, the halls of Chancellor High were once again filled with the sounds of students talking and laughing. Everyone was anxious to find out schedules and see friends. There were many new changes to which students adjusted. The first week is always an exciting but hectic time for everyone.

Gabe Black, Brittany Sharp, Laura Romani, and Shannon O'Connor spend time with their friends at lunch. Nicole Irvine and Rebecca Slaubaugh talk outside. Gabe Beltran buys a soda in the lobby. Carrie and Kirby Jones show team spirit. Leisha Garnett is an office aide. Mike Carley waits in the auditorium after taking his school picture. Allyson Jenkins and Amanda Lanier sit together at lunch. Autumn Kirchman, Erica Nottingham, and Amanda Parker eat during their busy lunch shift. Ryan Dougherty and Miss Cwiak sell ice cream to benefit the Red Cross. Abel Gallardo and Travis Tuttle meet at Matt Call's locker. Charles Hall and Julie Lambrose go to class. James Chewning gets his lunch.

Double Talk

Who is your double?

Twins are unique. Some are fraternal, some are identical. Some are best friends, some are not. Whatever the case, they are the same age. Because this is the year 2002, we celebrate twins.

Imagine not knowing you were having twins until they were born. "[Our] mom didn't know she was having twins," Meaghan and Casey Mauck said. But, despite the surprise, they get along and consider each other best friends.

Just because twins look alike, does not mean they act alike. Some find it hard to tell Kyle and Nathan Stapp apart, but their personalities make the difference, they say. Nathan says he tends to be more laid back and Kyle tends to be more serious and have a temper.

Some twins are not identical. They are easy to tell apart.

"I should hope not!" Shane Williams said when asked if anyone ever mixed him up with his twin, Shannon. They may enjoy doing some things together, but there are definite differences.

Many twins share things like clothes. Katie and Alix Mayer share friends. "We like to hang out with the same...friends," Alix said. This means they often end up doing things together. That is why being friends with your twin is so important.

This year, one of our assistant principals, Mr. Wolfe, is also a twin. His twin, Kurt, lives in North Carolina but when they see each other they enjoy golfing. It doesn't bother them when people mix them up. "It's funny," Mr.

Keith Wolfe said.

During Homecoming week this year, Chancellor students participated in Twin Day. Even though those students are not real twins, we salute their friendship reflected in their twin spirit.

TIME FOR THAT CHARGER SPIRIT

It's time to Charge!! Seniors, Juniors, Sophmores, and Freshmen all gather at the track to show their support and school spirit on Friday of Homecoming week. This is a tradition that always gets the football team pumped up for the big Homecoming game later that night. The Dance Team, Step Team, and Cheerleaders all get the opportunity to show off their talents, and make everyone proud of Chancellor.

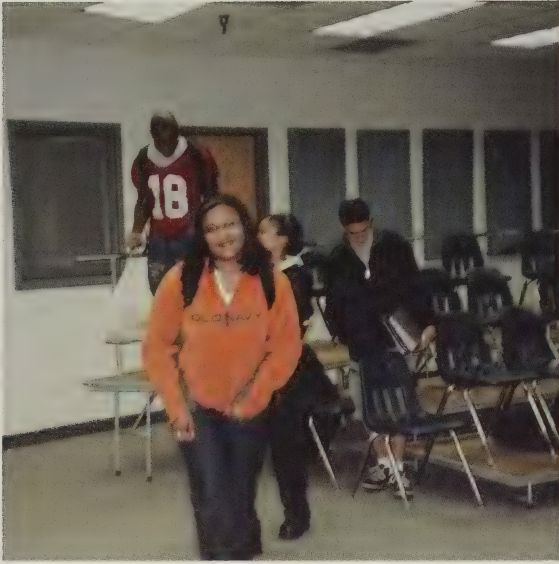

The Charger Field Hockey Team lines up along the football field wearing their tie-dye shirts. A crowd gathers around to watch the bashing of the Panther Car. The Dance Team finishes their performance. Scotty Pastell, Shannon Tyler, and Josh Glessner walk to the Pep Rally. Katie Hannifin, Sheena Velez, and Cheri Seitz won first, second, and third place respectively for their Senior Hats. Students have fun bashing the Panther Car. Seniors watch the Pep Rally from the stands. Tyler Jeffords, Craig Brown, Daryl Lyles, Gary Gray, and Robert Figueroa gather as the Football Team is introduced. Cheerleaders warm up the crowd with their Charger spirit. The Band joins in the spirit. Senior athletes burst through the banner on the track. The Step Team is ready to begin their performance.

Student Life

Chancellor High School has a diverse student body, but one thing that all students have in common is the special bonds they share with their peers. The years spent in high school are some of the most memorable moments in life. As students journey through their days at school, their friends and peers make days fun and create memories that will last a lifetime.

A Journey Just Begun

As the years progress, the Freshman class becomes larger than the previous. The Class of 2005 is no exception. The transition from middle school to high school is always a nervous and exciting one. With the help of upperclassmen and faculty, the first day of school is a success.

This year Chancellor High School welcomes a Freshman Class of 375 students and 29 new faculty members.

Mrs. Maddox helps Miss Dunn on her first week. Katie Sherrill and Cameron Wallace meet in the lobby after school. The new Chancellor faculty meets in the lobby for a picture. Michael Brooks walks to class. Ryan Gearhart and Mary Hayes eat lunch. Mary Camuso and Heba El-Ahwal talk after school. Austin Mimms, Robert Lewis, and Ronnie Markey catch up on the day. Amanda Dumire, Ashleigh Cotter, Sean Ferro, and Whitney Litton attend the first home football game. Travis Parker and Amanda Morris socialize in between classes. Tammie Than and Tiffany Le take a break during their busy day. Miss Wallen prepares for class. Brian Bush goes to his locker.

A Day in the Life

Nicole McLaughlin and her sister Jessica eat lunch in the cafeteria. Jeremy Gaston, Isaiah Schaffer, and Brandon Jordan leave the Vocational Center. Sheena Gomez sits at her desk prepared for class. Mr. Stableford explains something to Ryan Steele. Katy Sherrill, Chris Corker, Phillip Clark, Mary Kaila and Trey Christopher show their athletic spirit. Mrs. Bass-Fortune congratulates Tim Ormsby for The National Merit Scholar Award. SCA officers give prizes at the SCA sponsored Teacher Breakfast. Candace Breeden, Megan Hoile, and Jannae Smith go to the Senior Assembly. Christin Blasek and Darci Stowell meet at a locker. Jackie Ripollone works diligently during calculus class.

A typical high school day begins with talking to friends before going to class. You try to get to class on time, but there is a huge crowd in the halls. YOU'RE LATE!!! From that moment on the day begins. Throughout the day, tests are taken and meetings are held and finish. Some of Chancellor's students travel to the Spotsylvania Vocational Center for classes everyday. They attend Governor's School or Vocational classes. After school, many students have extracurricular activities. Being a high school student isn't always easy, in fact, it is pretty difficult at times not to mention busy. There are, however, many great moments that make it all worthwhile.

Moments in Time

Mary Kaila completes her peanut lab in science. Ashley Coffey, Caleb Reed, Dan Brody, and Tim Ormsby socialize at the Academic Letter Ceremony. Students gather in the auditorium on picture day. Jenna Anderson leaves her science class. Claire Langlois works in the office. Tiffany Mathews listens intently at the Vocational Center.

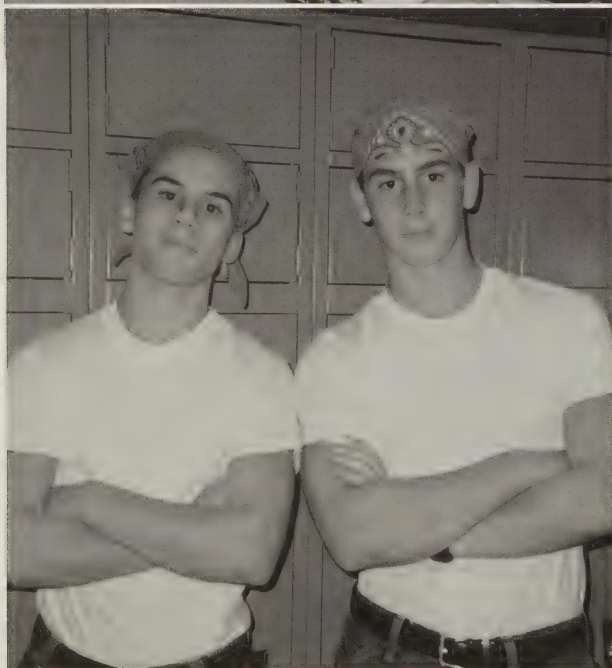

A Moment to Be Remembered

September 11, 2001 is a day that has made history. Many students at school were worried and scared about the terrifying events that took place in Washington D.C., Pennsylvania, and New York against the United States. The terrorist attacks put a hold on everything. All school events were postponed as well as all professional sporting events and other important functions around the country. The United States did not postpone everything for long. It got back on its feet and through these horrible events, the US became stronger. Our nation is united as one!

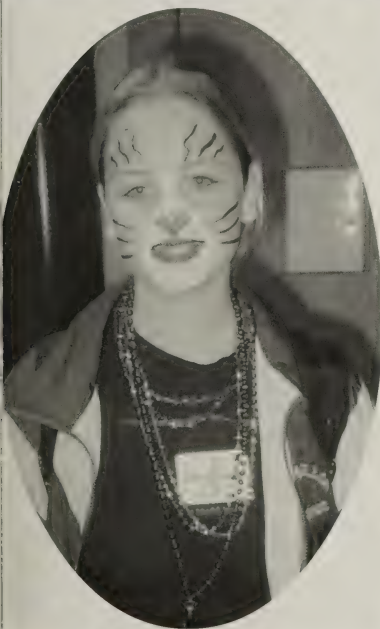

Making A Moment

Homecoming Week is a time for students to show their school spirit. Monday was Twin Day, Tuesday was Paint Your Face Day, Wednesday was All-American Day, Thursday was Kris Kross Day, and Friday was Mardi Gras Day. Beads were given by the SCA to the students who participated in the theme days. Many other events took place during this week such as the Wall Contest, Senior Hat Contest, and Parade of Floats at the Pep Rally. The Pep Rally was held at the Stadium, and the parade took place at the Pep Rally. The Homecoming Court was introduced at the football game. Chancellor won the game 17 - 7, defeating Massaponax High School.

Shadieh Abed and Roshni Shah work on the Key Club Wall. Coach DeMarco advises Matt Elder at the Homecoming game. Nate Horstick and Trevor Reed participate in Twin Day. Andrew Folsie, Bryan Harvey, and Dan Brody show their school spirit. Nancy Kowalski and Ashley Russi work on a Homecoming wall. Sam Fredo and Rachel Webb wait to crown the Homecoming Queen. Mary Beth Litton represents Bacchus, the God of Celebrations, on the Latin Club float. Mrs. Bass-Fortune congratulates Shelby Fredo. Sarah Samulevich participates in Paint Your Face Day. Brittany Harvey dresses up on Backwards Day. James Keller and Kerri Rothell ride in a convertible as part of the Senior Homecoming Court.

MASQUERADE

MARDI GRAS

The Homecoming theme this year was Mardi Gras, and the dance was held on October 20. This year's Senior Homecoming Court consisted of Ashley Brewer, Ashley Coffey, Shelby Fredo, Claire Langlois, Kerri Rothell, Jeremy Gaston, James Keller, Tyler Jeffords, Paul Sprick, and Isaiah Schaffer. The Junior Court consisted of Brandi Bullock, Nicole Nunez, Laura Yanez, Andrew Keddie, Ryan Steele, and Mike Blackmore. The Sophomore Court consisted of Laurie Heflin, Shannon Kerns, David Blair, and Travis Cotton. The Freshman Court consisted of Jessica McLaughlin, Bethany Tompkins, James Cowherd, and Ryan Lilly. Shelby Fredo and Paul Sprick were crowned King and Queen.

A New Twist On Things

Many Chancellor students travel each day to the Spotsylvania Vocational Center and work with other students from the county. Some of the programs they participate in are: nursing, auto mechanics, culinary arts, or cosmetology. The Vocational Center gives students hands-on experience in specific fields. Students who participate in these programs take their first step toward a productive career.

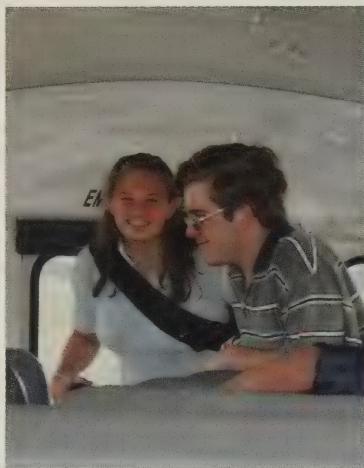

Robert Figueroa fixes a printer. Jeff Baxter and Hans Grahek work on the drum of a car. Lex Egea prepares a meal. Tiffany Mathews edits a video. Lauren Spindel cooks in culinary arts. Nate Daye installs car stereos. Tiffany Moore studies in Dental class. Ashley Briscoe practices washing hair. Isaiah Schaffer, Jeremy Gaston, and Kerry Aylesworth work in Auto Body. Matt Bush and Jessica Loyal prepare lunch tickets.

With an increasingly diverse population and a changing world, we must focus on the vision, collaboration, and quality of programs provided at Chancellor High School. Our focus is to help students of all backgrounds achieve academic and life goals.

It is my goal as principal to provide strategies to strengthen the link between schools and communities, to make sound decisions, and to implement a quality learning environment.

in the direction of his DREAMS
and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a SUCCESS
unexpected in common hours.
If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; Now put the
under them."

Time has passed too quickly since that 1984 New Year's Day when you made your surprising debut. We can hardly believe that you are a senior now and ready for the next exciting chapter in your life. You have been a wonderful source of pride and joy for both of us since the day you were born. We hope you continue to embrace life with love, laughter, and your own unique style and grace. Your strength of character and faith in God will serve you well. Always remember that you are our best reflection. Go to your destiny, but know without question that we will always be here for you.

We Love You,
Mom & Dad

Brandon Seth Jordan

The years have come and gone so fast. Yours, mine, and ours! Wow, you have so many roles to play and you do it so well. Son, Special Son, Boo Boo, Summer's Big Bro. God has really blessed us one with another.

Your sisters look up to you! Your father looks proudly to you! And I, your Special Mom, I'm just glad to have you as a son. We love you, we're so proud of you! Senior 2002. May God continue to bless you and guide you! Stay close to Him. Stay close to us!

Love You,
Dad, Glenda, Courtney,
Jessica, & Baby Summer

It's hard to believe that the years have gone by so fast! I probably won't be here for your graduation so I wanted to leave you this message. You are very special to me because you were my first grandchild. I have always remembered the joy and pride the first time I saw you.

Brandon, seek the Lord's will for your life and then set your goals, achieve your goals, and persevere. You can never go wrong following God's will.

I love you ~ You have always made me proud!

P.S. Never forget your favorite song, "Goin Away"!

Wherever you come from,
wherever you go, you're made up of places and people you know. Embrace always remember there's no place like

Our love and best wishes go with you always.

From toddler to teen you have made us so proud!

You've cut your own path,
not followed the crowd.

Keep true to that path,
let your soul be your guide.

And we know you can't help

When you walk the streets,
You will have no care,
When you walk the line,

When you go through life,
Make this your goal:
Watch the doughnut,
Not the hole.

Who loves you the best?

Glaine Jo Ruit

"Gainey", you have come from my little ballerina, to a softball catcher, "Bullet Cheeks", to an Emergency Medical Technician and now onward to college. I am proud of the young woman you have become. You are a young woman with character, integrity, faith, and a future.

Follow your dreams living each day to its fullest by enjoying life's simple pleasures. Throughout life's ups and downs, keep your faith and always remember life is a choice, your choice. I am honored to be your mother.

DREW DICKINSON

Yesterday a child came out to wonder
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star
Then the child moved ten times 'round the seasons
Skated over ten clear frozen streams
Words like, when you're older, must appease him
And promises of someday make his dreams

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now
Cartwheels turn to carwheels thru the town
And they tell him, Take your time, it won't be long now
Till you drag your feet to slow the circles down

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty
Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through

And the seasons they go 'round and 'round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on the carousel of time
We can't return, we can only look behind
From where we came
And go 'round and 'round
In the circle game

James "Jay" Merideth

From a boy to a man in just a few years with much happiness and sorrow, laughter and tears. Watching you grow has been such a pleasure. Moments to forget, moments to treasure. Independent and strong with a heart of gold. Good sense to guide you as you grow old. As you get ready to spread your wings and fly, always remember to reach for the sky.

All My Love Always,
Mom

Fathers routinely say the proudest day of our lives was the day our sons were born. It's a lie...the proudest day occurs for me each time I get to say, "Jay, he's my son". Life is a series of successes and failures, achievements and defeats. Whether you have one more than the other...each determines your character. Don't focus on these as individual occurrences, but as building blocks for life. Learn and grow from each, strive for excellence, and never settle for anything less than your best and most honest effort. Don't question faith, pursue your own destiny through hard work and determination. You've done it for the past 18 years, continued success and happiness will take care of themselves.

-Dad

Words cannot explain how fortunate I am to have you as my "little" brother. You are a wonderful person, both inside and out, and I know you will succeed in anything and everything life brings your way. Always remember that you are a building block in the house of life; without you, the project would be incomplete. Never settle for anything less than perfection, because that is what you deserve.

I love you, Bubba.

Jenna Lynn Louderback

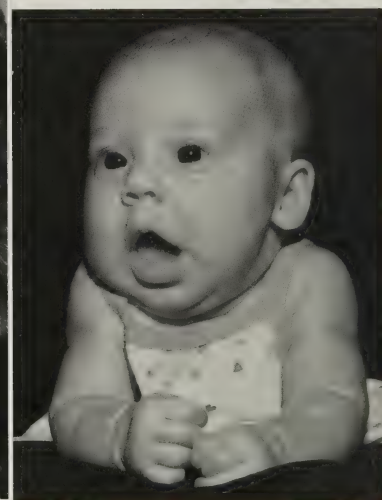

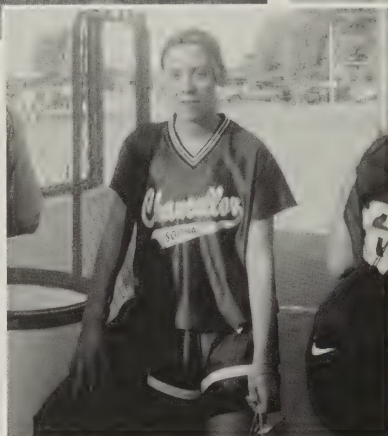

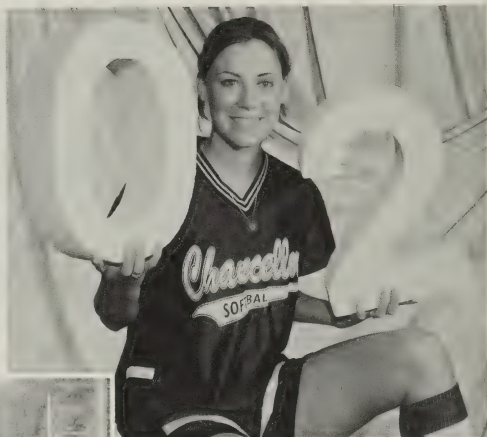

Jenna, "Lynn," we celebrate this special time: your Senior Year and the turning of another page! We've shared such a variety of life's pathways while your character and independence have developed. You were a beautiful baby and a fun toddler who turned into a 'tomboy' and has loved riding horses. Soon we saw bits of a young lady emerging who developed a new interest: singing! Sounds of Christian and Classical music fill our home, and yet we doubt you will ever give up your beloved 93.3 WFLS Country Music Radio station! We were shocked to learn you are a 'crack shot' with a rifle, and yet relaxed a little to see a feminine "you" in a prom gown.

We truly celebrate your diversity! You've driven us crazy . . . you've made us proud! You've stood on your morals and Christian beliefs. You fall down, you get up . . . and so do we with you. One thing we are especially proud of is how you seek to protect someone who seems to have less strength, and how you fiercely protect "Special Ed" children. There is far more to "you" than even "you" know! Let God show you what you're made of! We love you Jenna Lynn, with all of our hearts, and we are very proud of the person you are becoming! Congratulations Senior.

ASHLEY MARIE COFFEY

AS YOU GO THROUGH THE MANY MILESTONES OF LIFE, AT TIMES YOU WILL REACH SOME CROSSROADS. JUST KEEP YOUR FAITH, FOLLOW YOUR DREAMS, AND YOU WILL SUCCEED. REMEMBER WE WILL ALWAYS BE THERE BEHIND YOU AND SUPPORT YOU IN EVERYTHING YOU DO.

Ronnie~

As you prepare to graduate high school we want to take this opportunity to recognize the person you truly are: responsible, trustworthy, intelligent, kind-hearted, and compassionate. This is you! A person who has vision for what he wants, for what is right, for what is fair, and for his future. A person who understands, accepts, and eagerly takes on the hard work to achieve his vision. A good person who is equally considerate of family, friends, classmates, customers, teammates, and strangers. This is you! These thoughts are from the people who are fortunate enough to know you and live with you, to watch these traits and attributes develop over the last 18 years. We are the ones who are most proud of who you are-your parents, your brothers, and your entire family. We respect you, we admire you, and most of all we love you. Good luck, Ronnie. Your future is your life, and you are in control. Enjoy!

Once upon a time in a land not so far away was born a princess. Now this was not your average princess for she had a voice like an angel, a compassionate heart, and a desire to be all God created her to be. As the princess grew in loveliness, it became apparent that all of the kingdom's riches would be hers. For she lived her life in a manner pleasing to her King. As she continued on her journey, her parents prayer for her was, and still is..."That her love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment, that she may approve the things that are excellent, that she may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ, being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God." "Stinker," you are a gift from God, a miracle to us, and the daughter we never thought we would have. From the day in June when God gifted us with you, you changed our lives in a way we never thought possible. That beautiful smile of yours was evident almost immediately and it is still here today, always the same "Tiggerific" smile. With those words of "Ling Ling" you have always had something to say, bringing us unending laughter and joy. From the time you were "Daddy's Little Helper" you were always willing to lend a helping hand, no matter what the job. You have an overwhelming capacity for love, whether it is for your brothers, the children in the neighborhood, or a friend in need. You have touched so many lives. We are so proud of the young woman you've become and all that you have accomplished. May God continue to bless and protect you as you continue with your dreams. As you go away to college, keep your faith in God and with Him all your dreams are possible. We love you more than words can say, and remember your room will ALWAYS be yours.

It's hard when you truly care for someone. You don't look for faults, you don't look for answers, you don't look for mistakes. Instead you fight the mistakes, you accept the faults, and overlook the excuses.

Prayer changes things.

Erika, It seems like only yesterday that you were 25 inches long and weighed 6 pounds. Through the years you have maintained your innocence, refused to bend to peer pressure and continued to strive for the best life has to offer.  Don't settle for less, just continue to climb
 Follow your dream, if you stumble don't stop

 Can we then have the vision to seek something new...

The theme for the 2001-02 school year is "From This Moment". High school is made up of so many individual experiences, making many memories for the future. All of these moments lead up to graduation. This theme highlights those individual moments that have taken place at high school over the last four years.

This year's staff is made up of 14 students. Five seniors graduate and leave the staff this year: Chad Crider, Technical Staff Editor; Carrie Jones, Photography Editor; Rachel Judy, Copy/Deadline Editor; and Staffers Ashley Coffey and Melissa Mould. Junior Class staff members include: Christina Arens, Brittany Haney, Layout Editor; Allyson Jenkins, Nicole Johnston, and Heather Trehan. Sophomore Class staff members include Carlie DiCola, Kristen Iracane, Kirby Jones, and Brandy Smith.

Mrs. Cheryl Nelson is the yearbook sponsor this year at Chancellor High School, having served three years. It has been a team effort this year; and together with the hard work of the editors and every staff member, this is a yearbook that we are proud to present. It is our hope that you, the student body, faculty, staff, and friends of Chancellor High School, enjoy reflecting back on the moments that made up the 2001-02 school year through the 2002 Challenges yearbook.

Our yearbook is published by Jostens in Winston-Salem, NC, with Jay Hollis, our sales representative and our facility service representative, John Fletcher. Both Mr. Hollis and Mr. Fletcher have provided invaluable assistance, including computer workshops and individual assistance. This is our twelfth year with Jostens. This year the yearbook staff visited Winston-Salem in March to see the production of the yearbook.

Our book is in a trim of 8-1/2 x 11 and our yearbook this year totals 272 pages, including an addendum index, using mainly Myriad Headline and Sanvito Roman fonts. A 20-page Spring Supplement is also produced, mailed to graduating seniors, and handed out on the first day of school to underclassmen who purchased a yearbook.

As yearbook staff members, students took approximately 3000 pictures, attending sporting events, dances, class and club meetings and events, as well as assisting with class and club individual pictures. Yearbook donated to several charities this year and helped with the After Prom party by providing pictures and donations. All staff members worked on this yearbook one hour a day in class, and many more hours were spent on before and after school, during study halls and aide periods, as well as Saturdays, to meet deadlines and produce the best yearbook possible.
